OFFICE SNACKS SUPPLIER IN ABU DHABI

When deciding the bonuses and incentives to provide your team, don't forget to consider providing healthy snacks for them to enjoy while at work. Before you write off the idea as unhelpful to the company, think about the several ways that wholesome office snacks might increase worker engagement and productivity. It is well known that working at a desk or computer all day can lead to significant weight gain and muscle loss, which can raise expenses for a number of things (such as insurance and medical bills). The fact that office snack machines are stocked with an abundance of chocolate bars, which are high in sugar and other preservatives, doesn't help either.
